At Chick-fil-A Largo, we are dedicated to serving our team and community with CARE and EXCELLENCE. Our why starts with what we do.

We understand that social media can be a fun and rewarding way to share your life and opinions with family, friends and co-workers around the world. However, use of social media also presents certain risks and carries with it certain responsibilities. To assist you in making responsible decisions about your use of social media, we have established these guidelines for appropriate use of social media.

The same company principles and guidelines that apply to your off-line activities apply to your activities online. Ultimately, you are socially responsible for what you post online. Before creating online content, consider some of the risks and rewards that are involved. Keep in mind that any of your conduct that adversely affects your job performance, the performance of fellow associates or otherwise adversely affects our guests, vendors or suppliers may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.
